FORUM ON CUNY & Race

Diversity in a Time of Austerity Policies

Friday, December 9

6:00 – 9:00 PM

New York City College of Technology

Featured Speakers:

Carol Wright, PSC Researcher, CUNY and Race Project

Frank Deale, CUNY School of Law

Welcome by
President Russell Hotzler

Join us for a discussion of the preliminary findings of a study by the Professional Staff Congress on how race, gender and ethnicity affect hiring, promotion, tenure and reclassification at CUNY.

Participate in an evening of reflection and commentary, explore histories of anti-racism at the University, and strategize about how the union can intervene to build diversity into the institutional culture at CUNY.

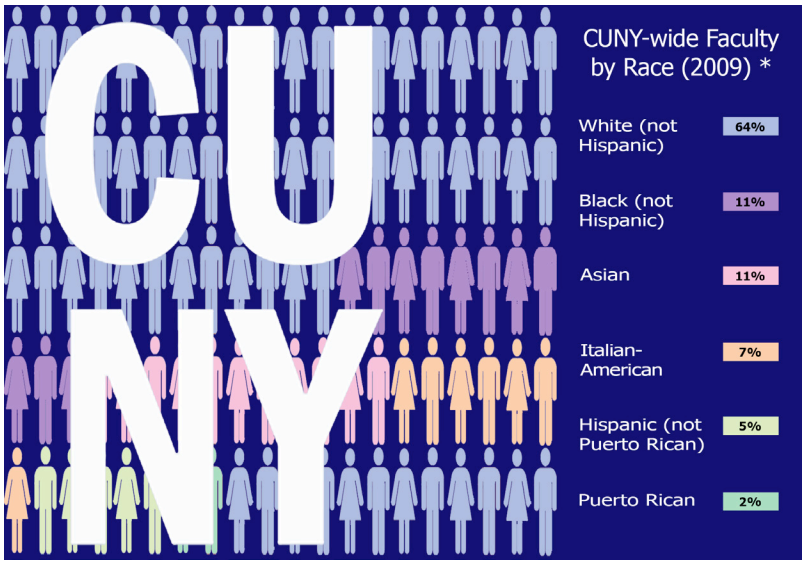
Refreshments will be served, starting at 5:30.

RSVP at http://www.psc-cuny.org/form/diversity-rsvp

Friday, December 9

6:00 – 9:00 PM

New York City College of Technology
Janet Lefler Dining Room
2nd floor of Namm Building
300 Jay Street at Tillary Street
Brooklyn, New York



Subways: A, C, F, and R trains to Jay Street, or 2, 3, 4, and 5 trains to Borough Hall.

For more information, contact icheng@pscmail.org.

Professional Staff Congress, www.psc-cuny.org (212) 354-1252