

PSC in Solidarity with the People of Haiti

Friday, February 19, 2010

5:30-6:30 Dinner Haitian food

6:30-8:00 Panel Discussion with CUNY Scholars

including

Professor Carolle Charles,
Sociology, Baruch College

Professor François Pierre-Louis, Political Science, Queens College

moderated by

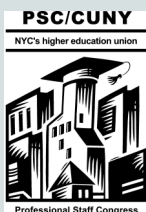

Professor Ted Henken,
Sociology and Black and Hispanic
Studies, Baruch College

Musical Presentation

Pierre-Henri Barthelemy, classical guitarist

8:00-10:00 Bamako (2006, Abederrahmane Sissako), presented by Labor Goes to the Movies

PROFESSIONAL STAFF CONGRESS

In the PSC Union Hall

61 Broadway, 16th Floor,
(212) 354-1252

www.psc-cuny.org

Join us as we come together as faculty, staff, students and friends of CUNY and the PSC in support of the people of Haiti, both on the island and here at our colleges.

Help us to raise money for the reconstruction of Haitian universities and the continuing relief work of Doctors without Borders.

Celebrate Haitian food and culture.

Participate in a discussion with CUNY specialists on Haitian history and politics.

All PSC members are invited.

Suggested Donation: $40 ($10 for students and lower-income participant.) 100% of money donated will go to Doctors without Borders and relief for Haitian universities.

RSVP, 212-354-1252, mberger@pscmail.org