

A CELEBRATION IN SOLIDARITY with Teachers from Oaxaca, Mexico

Teachers in Oaxaca, Mexico, on strike for 16 months for better salaries and learning conditions for their students, have inspired a mass movement in Oaxaca that has called for a new governor, a new constitution, and a new honoring of students, teachers, workers, and the public sphere.

How does this relate to us? What lessons can we learn?

GUEST SPEAKER:

Raquel Cruz-Manzano- Teacher and union leader in Oaxaca, Mexico

CUNY RESPONDENTS: Electa Arenal, Mike Menser, Gerardo Renique

MODERATOR: Nancy Romer

Films and art from Oaxaca will be on display

A light Oaxacan dinner will be served at 5:30 pm and the program will begin at 6pm.
For further information, contact: 212-354-1252.

Friday, October 12, 5:30 PM

Professional Staff Congress Union Hall-16th Floor
61 Broadway (off Exchange Pl) in lower Manhattan

SUBWAYS WITHIN ONE BLOCK OF 61 BROADWAY: 4 and 5 trains, Wall Street Stop; R, W and 1 trains, Rector Street Stop.

Co-Sponsored by: PSC-CUNY (AFT 2334) & UUP-SUNY (AFT 2190)

Please invite your colleagues, students and friends. Dinner Free; cash bar.