

CUNY Students, Faculty and Staff:

Sick of crumbling buildings and rundown classrooms and labs?

Tired of State and City budgets that don't prioritize our working and learning conditions?

If yes, share photos to
#ReclaimOurSchools

Thurs., Oct. 6

Take photos on your campus of rundown classrooms, broken and obsolete lab equipment, leaky ceilings, damaged walls and floors, busted escalators—anything that needs fixing—and share them on Twitter, Instagram or Facebook with the hashtag #ReclaimOurSchools

Albany and City Hall Must Rebuild and Repair CUNY

CUNY needs much more State and City investment for Critical Maintenance in its Capital Budget to address health and safety and keep our campuses in good repair and up to code.

CUNY needs increases in its Operating Budget, too. Its overcrowded classrooms and aging infrastructure need constant upkeep and repair. Our amazing maintenance staff don't have what they need to fix everything and even minor repairs take too long to fix because CUNY lacks adequate staffing levels and resources.

More information

Facebook.com/PSC.CUNY

PSC Chapter Chair, Robert Farrell, robert.farrell@lehman.cuny.edu

On October 6 parents, students and educators in 200+ cities and towns will take part in this national day of action organized by The Alliance to Reclaim Our Schools.

Professional Staff Congress/CUNY | psc-cuny.org | @psc_cuny